

Scene One

Print these scripts and bring them to class. You do not need to memorize these scripts, but reading them in advance is a good idea so you're familiar with the story.

Scene:	Kids discover a box can lead to an unexpected adventure
Roles (6):	Narrator, Andy, Max, Jeanie, Dad
Ages:	7 years and over

The Box

Narrator: It was a rainy day. Andy and Max had their friend Jeanie over to play. They were going to go to the park today.

Dad: Sorry kids, it's too wet to go to the park today. You will have to play inside.

Max: (Whining) But dad, you promised we could go!

Jeanie: (cheerfully) It's okay Max. We can still have lots of fun playing inside.

Narrator: Max was not happy. He wanted to go on the swings today. He had plans and the rain ruined them.

Scene One

Print these scripts and bring them to class. You do not need to memorize these scripts, but reading them in advance is a good idea so you're familiar with the story.

The Box

Dad: We can try going to the park tomorrow. The weather should be better then.

Andy: Can we go to the zoo instead?

Max: (angrily) No! I want to go on the swings at the park. I have been waiting to go.

Dad: We can talk about it later. Maybe we can do both.

Narrator: Dad walked out of the room. Max crossed his arms and sat on the floor. He felt like his whole day was ruined

Jeanie: (excitedly) What game should we play Andy?

Max: (grumpily) We don't have any good games. All of our games are boring.

Narrator: Just then, Dad came back with a giant box. It was huge! Max's eyes got really wide.

Scene One

Print these scripts and bring them to class. You do not need to memorize these scripts, but reading them in advance is a good idea so you're familiar with the story.

The Box

Andy: (excitedly) Where did that box come from Dad?

Dad: Do you want to play with it?

Jeanie: What will we do with it?

Max: (excitedly) I know! We can pretend it is a rocket ship. We can blast off into outer space!

Andy: Or we can pretend it is a royal lemonade stand. We can be the best lemonade stand in all the land!

Jeanie: Maybe it can be a submarine! We can dive to the bottom of the ocean and explore!

Narrator: Max, Andy, and Jeanie crawled into the giant box and began their adventure together.

(End Scene One)

Scene Two

Print these scripts and bring them to class. You do not need to memorize these scripts, but reading them in advance is a good idea so you're familiar with the story.

Scene:	Kids discover a box can lead to an unexpected adventure
Roles (6):	Narrator, Andy, Max, Jeanie, Dad
Ages:	7 years and over

The Box

Narrator: Max crawled into the box last. When he got inside, things changed! They were on a train, going at a fast speed.

Andy: (yelling) Hang on Max! (toots train horn) This train is part roller coaster.

Max: Woah! do you think we could slow down a little?

Narrator: Max held on to the seats inside the train. They were going so fast that he felt like he would fly out of the window.

Jeanie: (excitedly) Woo! This is amazing! Go faster, Andy!

Scene Two

Print these scripts and bring them to class. You do not need to memorize these scripts, but reading them in advance is a good idea so you're familiar with the story.

The Box

Narrator: Max noticed that the train tracks led right into the ocean. Oh no!

Max: Guys! This train is going to crash into the ocean!

Jeanie: (worried) Oh no! Andy stop the train!

Andy: (fearful) I'm trying! I can't get it to stop!

Narrator: Max, Jeanie, and Andy held on tight as the train got closer to the ocean.

Max: Ahh! I can't look!

Narrator: Max shut his eyes just before they crashed into the water. But there was no crash!

Jeanie: (gasps) Guys! look!

Narrator: Max carefully opened one of his eyes.

Scene Two

Print these scripts and bring them to class. You do not need to memorize these scripts, but reading them in advance is a good idea so you're familiar with the story.

The Box

Andy: (surprised) Woah! We turned into a train submarine!

Jeanie: (excitedly) This is the coolest!

Max: Wow! Look at all the fish!

Narrator: The train submarine wiggled through the water. It took them to an underwater castle.

Andy: (gasps) It's my royal lemonade stand! But why is it underwater?

Jeanie: I don't know. But let's go get some royal lemonade!

Narrator: The train submarine stopped at the royal lemonade stand. They were about to get out when the box tipped over!

Max: No! Let's get back in the box! I wanted some of that lemonade!

Scene Two

Print these scripts and bring them to class. You do not need to memorize these scripts, but reading them in advance is a good idea so you're familiar with the story.

The Box

Dad: Time for lunch kids!

Jeanie: Already? But we just got to the good part.

Andy: It's okay, we can go back after we eat!

Max: Let's hurry and eat fast so we can go back sooner! Maybe we will go to my rocket ship next.

Narrator: The friends ran off to eat lunch, so they could finish their fun adventure.

(The End)